

ElectroMart Warranty Policy

Policy version 2026-01

1.1 Scope of warranty. The ElectroMart warranty covers manufacturing defects in products sold by ElectroMart. The warranty period starts on the date of delivery shown on the order, not the date of purchase.

1.2 Proof of purchase. Every warranty claim must quote a valid ElectroMart order id. Claims without an order id cannot be processed.

2.1 Mobile phones - what is covered. For mobile phones the warranty covers defects in the display, battery, charging port, speakers, microphone and mainboard that arise in normal use.

2.2 Mobile phones - warranty period. Mobile phones are covered against manufacturing defects for 12 months from the date of delivery.

3.1 Laptops - what is covered. For laptops the warranty covers defects in the display, keyboard, trackpad, battery, charger, storage and mainboard that arise in normal use.

3.2 Laptops - warranty period. Laptops are covered against manufacturing defects for 24 months from the date of delivery.

4.1 Audio products - what is covered. For audio products such as headphones, earbuds and speakers the warranty covers charging faults, battery failure, loss of sound in one or both channels and Bluetooth connection faults.

4.2 Audio products - warranty period. Audio products are covered against manufacturing defects for 12 months from the date of delivery.

5.1 Small appliances - what is covered. For small appliances such as mixer grinders, kettles and irons the warranty covers motor, heating element and switch failures that arise in normal household use.

5.2 Small appliances - warranty period. Small appliances are covered against manufacturing defects for 24 months from the date of delivery.

6.1 Accessories - what is covered. For accessories such as cables, chargers, cases and power banks the warranty covers failure to charge or connect in normal use.

6.2 Accessories - warranty period. Accessories are covered against manufacturing defects for 6 months from the date of delivery.

7.1 Exclusions - damage not covered. The warranty does not cover physical damage such as cracked screens, dents or drops, liquid or water damage, damage caused by unauthorised repair, or normal wear and tear. Claims for such damage are rejected.

8.1 Remedy - defect within 30 days of delivery. If a covered defect is reported within 30 days of delivery, the customer may choose a full refund or a replacement.

8.2 Remedy - defect after 30 days, within warranty. If a covered defect is reported after 30 days but within the warranty period, products priced up to Rs. 10,000 are replaced. Products priced above Rs. 10,000 are repaired free of charge at an authorised service centre. A refund is not offered after 30 days.

8.3 Remedy - outside the warranty period. Claims made after the warranty period has ended are rejected. The customer may be offered a paid repair.

8.4 Repeat claims. If two or more warranty claims have already been made on the same order, a new claim must be reviewed by a support approver before it is settled.
